A Message from Minister of Missions Elizabeth Kilby

A sincere thank you to absolutely everyone who helped in any way with White Christmas. What a fun, full and wonderful day! We welcomed all the families in the church and the clothes closet. It is days like this when I go home so tired and so thankful to do what we do as a church. All but one family showed on Saturday and the final family's presents were delivered to NB Mills with their food bright and early Monday morning.

We impacted 33 families and 103 children this holiday season and all I can say is WOW!!! Special thanks to Janet and Mike McLain, Sherry and Shannon Ashley, Jody Parlier, Marc Poole, Neill Pardue and the countless volunteers who shopped, prayed, contributed, and volunteered at any point during this process.

Also special thank you to Christy Burby and the N.B. Mills staff that helped make the day possible. We can't wait for next year!

Many thoughts and prayers,
Elizabeth

Music Ministry Christmas Cantata

Sunday, December 14, 2025 - 6:00 p.m.

Please join the First Baptist Church Sanctuary Choir along with the Providence Methodist Church Choir in presenting Joseph Martin's "Festival of Carols". The performance will be on Sunday, December 14, at 6:00 p.m. in the sanctuary at First Baptist Church.

"Festival of Carols" invites us to come celebrate Christmas with rich carols and beautiful new songs. It is based on a traditional Lessons and Carols format, which includes nine Scripture lessons along with music to reflect the reading. This work references over 20 carols in delivering the message of redemption and the birth of God's promised Son. Carols new and old are wrapped up in beautiful arrangements, readings, and wonderful instrumental orchestrations.

It is the hope of both FBC's music ministry and the music ministry of Providence Methodist Church that this music presentation serves as a poignant reminder of God's love for all of us. We pray that you will enjoy this retelling of the Christmas story in songs and readings and that the spirit of Christmas will follow you throughout this season.

Cookie Fellowship

Please join the FBC family for a Cookie Fellowship immediately following our Christmas Cantata on Sunday, Dec 14.

Also, please bring a tray of your favorite cookies or sweet treats to share with everybody. You may drop your treats by Adams Hall on Sunday morning or 5:00-5:45 p.m. before the program begins.
