From the Pastor...

Easter is almost here and our Lenten journey is drawing to an end. Easter is the most hopeful event of all of history and greatest celebration for all Christians! As such, we are making plans at First Baptist Church for a wonderful Easter worship followed by a special Eastertide preaching series – The Power of Easter!

I'm excited about Easter, but I know there is work to do before we get there. I'm not talking about all the details that go into Easter worship, but rather the spiritual preparation that makes Easter more meaningful. In other words, we need to finish Lent well in order to go onto a joyous Easter.

Walking with Jesus through Holy Week prepares us for Easter. Palm Sunday reminds us that it is easier to shout hosanna than to live out our faith. Maundy Thursday helps us remember that we are loved and called to love. Good Friday reveals the cost of our salvation and our call to engage the suffering of life.

I hope you will join us for a wonderful Easter celebration on March 27. For it to be the most meaningful, I hope you will stay in Lent a couple of more weeks. Walk the Stations of the Cross in the Sanctuary. Observe Communion with your church family Maundy Thursday. Participate in the Community Good Friday Service.

Remember, we cannot truly understand the power of the resurrection until we recognize the depth of Christ's love upon the cross.

- Dr. Nelson Granade, Senior Pastor

Upcoming Sermons

Sunday, March 13, 2016

Dying for Growth

John 12:20-33

Jesus noted that a single grain can bear much fruit, but only if it is buried first. Jesus then went to the grave so that we might have eternal life. This sermon will call First Baptist Church to consider how we must "die" so that we might bear fruit.

Sunday, March 20, 2016

What Are You Doing?

Mark 11:1-11

Palm Sunday had a lot of activity. People were lined up praising Jesus because they wanted someone to "do something for them." Jesus, however, was focused on doing God's work of redemption. We too get caught up in the business of life. This sermon is to remind us that Lent is a season to slow down and consider "what we are doing."

The Meaning of Holy Week

The events framed by Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and His resurrection are some of the most dramatic and theologically important events in the entire scriptural narrative. These days feature not only the drama of the triumphal entry, trial, last supper, and crucifixion but also poignant prayers and prophetic teachings of our Lord. John's gospel devotes eight of its 21 chapters to this week alone! The week begins with Passion/Palm Sunday and ends with the "three days" (also called the Triduum, from sunset on Thursday to sunset on Easter Day), the period during which all Christians mark Jesus' trial, death, and resurrection.

The first Sunday of Holy Week is commonly called either "Palm Sunday" or "Passion Sunday." Those who call it "Palm Sunday" tend to focus on the entry of Christ into Jerusalem to shouts of "Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!" (Mark 11:9). Those who refer to the day as "Passion Sunday" tend to focus on Jesus' suffering. This is especially appropriate in contexts in which participation in midweek services on Maundy Thursday or Good Friday is difficult or minimal, and, as a result, worshipers would sing "Hosanna" on one Sunday and "Christ arose" on the next, with little attention to Jesus' suffering and death in between.

For congregations that celebrate the day as Palm Sunday, like we at First Baptist Statesville do, it's important to capture the irony of the day. This is the day on which Jesus entered the city in triumph as a part of his journey to the cross. Yet, it is also the week in which the crowd's cries of "Hosanna" would soon turn to "Crucify Him!"

On Maundy Thursday the Church remembers the last evening Jesus shared with His disciples in the upper room before His arrest and crucifixion. Maundy Thursday marks three key events in Jesus' last week: His washing of His disciple's feet, His institution of the Lord's Supper, and His new commandment to love one another. The name "Maundy Thursday" comes from the Latin mandatum novum, referring to the "new commandment" Jesus taught His disciples (John 13:34). In other words, this is "new commandment Thursday."

Good Friday marks the death of Jesus Christ. It's called "good" because of what Jesus' death means for the redemption of the world. Worship on this day may focus on three aims: (1) to narrate and remember the events of Jesus' death, (2) to open up the meaning of these events for our understanding of God and the redemption accomplished by the cross, and (3) to invite worshipers to renewed prayer and dedication.

On Easter all the hopes and expectations of Christians are realized in the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, making Easter the most celebrative day of the church year.

The Easter morning service is a time of joy, celebration, and renewal. Even churches that do not customarily follow the church year celebrate this day as the culmination of all that the gospel is about.

Because the good news of Easter can hardly be contained in a single day's celebration, Easter is only the first of 50 days of Eastertide, the "Great Fifty Days" that lead up to Pentecost. This season is designed for extended celebration, for exploring the ramifications of Easter for the redemption of all creation, and for joyful Christian living.

James Martin, Minister of Music & Worship

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross refers to a series of images depicting Jesus Christ on the day of his crucifixion and the prayers Christians say when contemplating those images. The Stations of the Cross are also called the Via Dolorosa or Way of Suffering. In Jerusalem the Via Dolorosa is believed by many to be the actual path that Jesus walked, and the stations there, the actual places the events occurred.

Often a series of 14 images will be arranged in numbered order around a church sanctuary or along a path, and the faithful travel from image to image, in order, stopping at each "station" to say the selected prayers and reflections. This may be done individually or in groups.

The tradition of moving around the Stations to commemorate the Passion of Christ began with St. Francis of Assisi and extended through the medieval period to the present. It is most commonly done during Lent, especially on Good Friday, but also on other days as well. - Adopted from Wikipedia.

Please stop by the church during regular office hours the week of Holy Week. The 14 Stations of the Cross will be set up in the Sanctuary.

- Larry Gregg, Interim Minister of Christian Education
