THE INTERIM

Volume 76 Issue 17

August 18, 2019

From the Pastor...

Summer is not quite over, but the kids are already back in school. Soon our Wednesday evening schedule will be back in full-swing. We launch Wednesday, August 21 with a Fall Kickoff. This is an intergenerational event that will give us the opportunity to practice Growing Young by spending time in fellowship. We will have hamburgers and hot dogs starting at 5:00 p.m. and share the desserts we all bring.

Our regular activities will begin in full on Wednesday, August 28 with something for every age group. Kids will enjoy the Wonderful Wednesday After-School Program and then music and missions. Teens will have the opportunity to spend time with Elizabeth Barnard Kilby, as well as learning leadership from other adults in our church. And our adults will be focusing on "God's Purpose in Prayer."

Wednesday nights are the one time our entire church can be together and get to know each other in a more relaxed setting. Whether you've been a Wednesday regular, have never tried Wednesday events or are brand new to the congregation; I hope you will join the rest of your church family each Wednesday. The kids get to call it Wonderful Wednesday, but it's pretty great for everyone!

Two Thousand Years Plus or Minus

That is as old as Christianity itself! Wow! That is the estimated combined age of our Homebound Membership.

These are people who have helped build this church into the beautiful place and powerful force for God that it is. They have sponsored missionaries, financially supported this church, taught in our preschool and nurseries, ushered, sung in the choir and on and on.

They were school teachers, business owners, crafts people, hospital administrators, etc. The knowledge that they have collectively equals the wealth of a great library; yet they are generally out of sight and out of mind. Oh no, we don't mean for that to be the case, but we get so busy with our own lives, our children and grandchildren that we frequently forget.

Not only do we have those homebound BUT we have Guardian Angels also. They are the people that visit our Homebound Members - those who can no longer be as active as they were for many years. These Guardian Angels visit monthly (sometimes even more) and take the literature that the church supplies which also includes Bible study material. Sometimes they may take food, flowers or some other small gift that these folks cherish. They try to help them be in touch with the church.

Our homebound also need prayers from other members. One never gets prayed for too much. Would you adopt one and pray for them this week? This would mean so much to them and I think that you would benefit from it also. While you are praying, please pray for the Guardian Angels also. They give of their time and caring love to assist these wonderful members. We also send the Interim and literature to those who have had to relocate to be close to family. They have only moved in body but their spirit will always be with us. Cards are signed at Wednesday night prayer meeting and are sent to them on a rotating basis.

The following is a list of those wonderful folks. Please look it over and decide who you will occasionally contact through cards, letters, phone calls and/or visits. Your prayers are the very most important thing.

Nedra Broyhill	Joan Hopkins	Arnold & Mary Nunnery
Irene Blackburn	Lois James	Genoa Taylor
Charlie Boggs	Jerry & Karen Livingston	Louise Taylor
Ruth Bondurant	Phil & Jerry Mills	Ovaline Watts
Marceline Duncan	Nancy Milstead	Vera Webster
Betty Grant	Bill & Jeanie Murdock	Burwell Whittenton
Mary Hayes		Ken & Ellen White

Present Guardian Angels: Elizabeth Benfield, Caroline Bentley, Jerry Campbell, Phil & Jean Crowder, Kaye & Don Daniel, Lynn & Dennis Deal, Nancy Garland, Carol Heckel, & Charles Guy.

Five Prayers to Start Your Day

My friend David Butts shared the following prayer prompts with me (and I added to them).

1. Fix Your Eyes on Jesus. First, spend time in worship. This may require getting up earlier.
2. Cultivate Gratefulness. Resist the urge to begin with your "list", rather thank God as you take time to think back over all He's done for you.
3. Dwell with the Lord. Choose a verse (there are many in the Psalms) that brings you close to God and stay there a while. This brings intimacy with God.
4. Draw Near. James 4:8 says, "Come near to God and He will come near to you". (You can't talk face to face with someone who is far away.)
5. Put on your armor. The world into which you will soon step is hostile. The devil is waiting for you. When you put on God's armor (Eph. 6:10-18) the devil will be no match for you.
6. Now for your list...if you can remember it!

His servant and your friend
Ginny Stikeleather

Announcements

CBF Misson Bites

Mission Bite 141: Succeeding in Loving Our Neighbor

The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the LORD your God. Leviticus 19:34 (NIV)

One of my greatest curiosities is whether we, as Christians, are succeeding in loving our neighbor. Over the last year, I sat down with over one hundred Muslim migrants to Christian-majority contexts in this country to find an answer to that question. Over cups of coffee and tea, we chatted about their experience in their new "Christian" home.

Every single family said that they felt welcomed by their Christian neighbors. Furthermore, most had found a more pleasant and tolerant atmosphere when compared to their origin.

- Mike, CBF field personnel serving in Southeast Asia

Mission Bite 142: Partner, Engage, and Learn Together

In April, we were able to host a few people from one of our Encourager Churches, First Baptist Church of Austin, Texas. They came for an exposure/encourage trip to learn more about our work here and encourage and minister to us.

It was wonderful getting to share about this place with our friends from First Austin. There is something so special about sharing all the things we love about Chinese life and culture with others. We feel called here, and opportunities to introduce our life and calling to our partners are affirming.

We spent the week having meals with some of our local Chinese fellowship friends and talking about how our group here can be connected with the folks at First Austin. It is neat when, not only does our Encourager Church get involved with our Chinese fellowship, but that our Chinese fellowship can encourage and share with our Encourager Church.

We, as Americans, can easily feel that we have a lot to give, but we also can learn so much from our Chinese brothers and sisters. It is amazing to see how God creates Beloved Community around the globe. We are so thankful to be connected to our Encourager Church and hope to continue to find ways to partner, engage, and learn together.

- Brittany and Casey, CBF field personnel serving in China

Welcome to our Church Family!
Melinda Induni joined our congregation by a statement of faith at the worship service on Sunday, August 4. Welcome to our church family!
